

FACULTY: HUMANITIES
DEPARTMENT: HISTORY AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS
2017/2018 ACADEMIC SESSION

COURSE CODE: IRS 208

COURSE TITLE: Politics of Development and Underdevelopment (2 units)

DURATION: 2hrs 30 Minutes

HOD's SIGNATURE

INSTRUCTION: Answer 3 Questions

Question
No.

1. "Neo-colonialism is the worst form of imperialism, for those who practice it, it means Power without responsibility and for those who suffer from it, it means exploitation without regret". To what extent is this claim appropriate to our understanding of the challenges arising from imperialism in the South". 20 marks
2. Discuss this assertion in relation to the World Politics. "Europe exploited Africa, but Africa underdeveloped Africa". 20 marks
3. "Globalisation has continued to have both positive and negative impacts in the Third World". Discuss. 20 marks
- 4(a) What is underdevelopment? 8 marks
(b) Identify both the external and internal causes of underdevelopment in the Third World 12 marks
- 5(a) What do you understand by the concept of development? 8 marks
(b) Does the presence of abundant human potentials and mineral resources translate to Development? Substantiate your answer with adequate illustrations. 12 marks