

ELIZADE UNIVERSITY, ILARA-MOKIN, ONDO STATE

FACULTY: HUMANITIES
DEPARTMENT: HISTORY AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS
2014/2015 ACADEMIC SESSION

COURSE CODE: HID 203

COURSE TITLE: AFRICAN HISTORY SINCE 1800

DURATION: 2 HOURS 30 MINUTES

HOD'S SIGNATURE

INSTRUCTION: ANSWER ANY THREE QUESTIONS

1. Critically discuss the impact of the 19th century Islamic Jihads on West Africa.
2. Identify and discuss the factors responsible for the abolition of the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade.
3. "Africa: A Pit of Hell" was the title of a newspaper article by British Journalist, Mr. Rod Liddle, about contemporary Africa. In view of the continent's current economic, political, ethnic, religious, and industrial situation, do you agree with this assertion? Illustrate your points with any African country.
4. In what major ways were nationalist leaders and movements in Portuguese colonies in Africa different from their counterparts in British, French, and Belgian colonies? Discuss the route to independence in the Portuguese-ruled African territories.
5. Why did the military intervene in African politics? What were the consequences of this intervention for African countries?