

ELIZADE UNIVERSITY, ILARA-MOKIN, ONDO STATE

FACULTY: HUMANITIES DEPARTMENT: HISTORY AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS 2014/2015 ACADEMIC SESSION

COURSE CODE: HID 311

COURSE TITLE: COLONIALISM AND IMPERIALISM IN AFRICA

DURATION: 2 HOURS 30 MINUTES

HOD's SIGNATURE

INSTRUCTION: ANSWER QUESTION 1 AND TWO OTHER QUESTIONS

1. What is the Radical Political Economy approach? How relevant and useful is it in the analysis and understanding the contemporary African situation? (30 marks).
2. "In the absence of autotomizing mechanism in the post-colonial state, the resources of physical coercion become the tools of particular groups" (Claude Ake, 1985). Discuss this statement in relation to the state in post-colonial Africa. (15 marks).
3. According to Professor Jeremiah I. Dibua, the introduction and implementation of Neoliberalism/Structural Adjustment Programmes in Africa is a "Journey to Nowhere." Do you agree with this radical conclusion? (15 marks).
4. Critically discuss the nature and types of African resistance to European imperialism and colonialism between the 1880s and 1918. (15 marks).
5. Identify and discuss the legacies of European incursion and domination of Africa. (15 marks).