

ELIZADE UNIVERSITY

SECOND SEMESTER 2018/2019 EXAMINATION QUESTIONS

Course Code: Eco 410

Course Title: Economics of Emerging Economies

Instruction: Answer any THREE questions. Each question carries 20 marks.

Time allowed: 2 hours.

Credit Units: 2 units.

Question 1.

- i. Migration has assumed a critical dimension in most emerging economies recently. Critically discuss the potential costs and benefits of migration in rural areas of emerging economies.
- ii. State and discuss the various dimensions of globalisation.

Question Two

- (a). State and critically discuss the characteristics of an emerging economies.
- (b). Based on these characteristics identified in (a), do you think Nigeria is qualified as an emerging economy?
- (c). What are the potential benefits that an emerging economy can derive from globalisation?

Question Three

- a. State and explain the reasons usually adduced in favour of urbanization as instrument for growth in emerging economies of the world.
- b. Explain how women's education and health have contributed to the rapid growth of emerging economies.

Question Four

- a. An emerging economy cannot be described as a failed state. Do you agree with this assertion?
- a. State and explain the characteristics of a failed state
- b. Recommend what a failed state should do to be out of the unfortunate mess.
- c. What are some of the population policies adopted by the emerging economies to regulate their population growth?

Question Five

One of the features of emerging economies is that, they have been able to tackle largely the menace of corruption.

- i. What then is corruption?
- ii. How is corruption measured?
- iii. Identify and explain the bad effects of corruption.